Re: Fairstein v. Netflix, Inc. et al, No. 20-cv-8042 (PKC)

Defendants' Request for Additional Pages to Respond to Plaintiff's Omnibus Motion in Limine

Dear Judge Castel:

Defendants Netflix, Inc., Ava DuVernay and Attica Locke (collectively, "Defendants") respectfully request leave to file an Opposition to Plaintiff's Omnibus Motion in Limine (ECF No. 232) of up to 40 pages. The next conference scheduled with the Court is the Final Pretrial Conference on March 7, 2024 (ECF No. 227).

Plaintiff filed her Omnibus Motion in Limine on December 15, 2023 raising 15 separate in limine issues to exclude evidence. Defendants' opposition is due January 19, 2024. In order to adequately respond to each of the issues raised by Plaintiff, Defendants request an additional 15 pages (40 pages total) for their opposition brief. Counsel for Defendants have conferred with counsel for Plaintiff, who does not object to this request.

Sincerely,

Natalie J. Spears

Counsel for Defendants Netflix, Inc., Ava DuVernay and Attica Locke
